

ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH

923 PORTLAND AVENUE

ROCHESTER, NEW YORK

DECEMBER 13, 1964

50 Golden Years

Respectfully Dedicated to

Rt. Rev. Monsignor George W. Eckl

"Monsignor Eckl" and "St. Andrew's" have become synonymous terms. For its fifty year history Monsignor Eckl has presided over this parish as its beloved pastor.

"Unique" and "rare" are the adjectives that can best describe the common "Golden Jubilee" of St. Andrew's parish and Monsignor Eckl as its pastor.

Born in "Dutchtown" on September 26, 1877 Monsignor Eckl attended Holy Family school, from which he graduated in 1891. St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's Seminaries were the scenes of his training for the priesthood, to which he was ordained in St. Patrick's Cathedral on June 6, 1901 by Bishop McQuaid, the first Bishop of Rochester. Until February of 1902 he was not officially assigned to any parish but assisted at St. John's, Spencerport, St. Leo's, Hilton, and St. Mary's, Rochester.

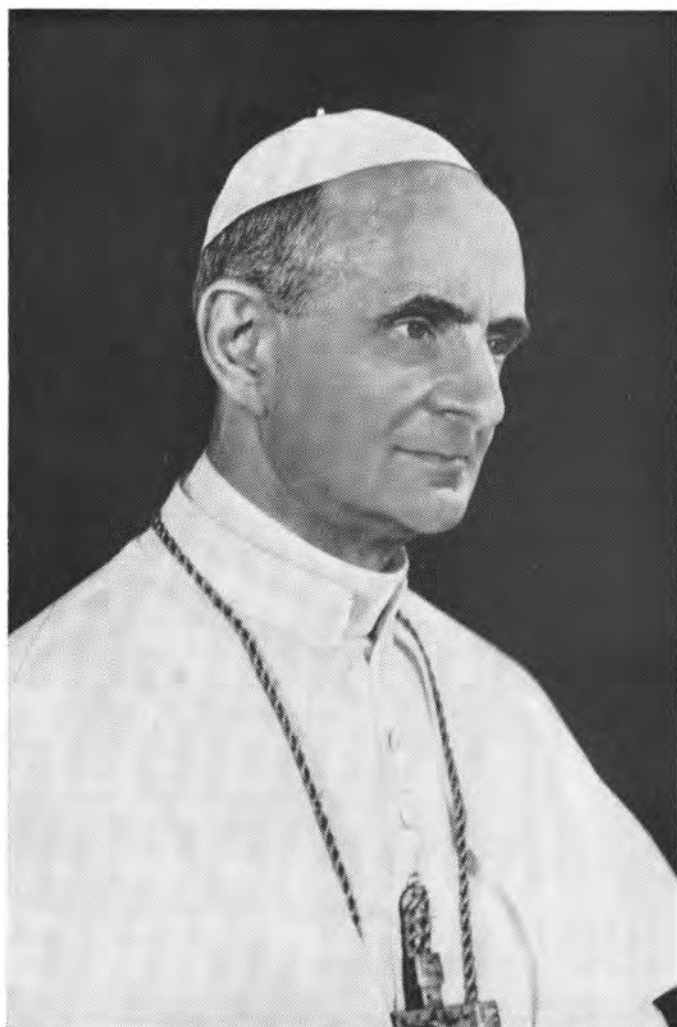

On February 1, 1902 Monsignor was appointed as assistant pastor of Immaculate Conception Church, Rochester. On November 30, 1907 he became pastor of St. John's Church, Greece and he remained there until his appointment as pastor of St. Andrew's on November 30, 1914. He guided the destiny of this new parish most zealously and by consistent and apostolic labor brought St. Andrew's to the outstanding parish it is today.

He was honored by Pope Pius XII on November 11, 1947 by being made Domestic Prelate with the title of Right Reverend Monsignor. In February 1916 he was chosen by Bishop Kearney as a Diocesan Consultor.

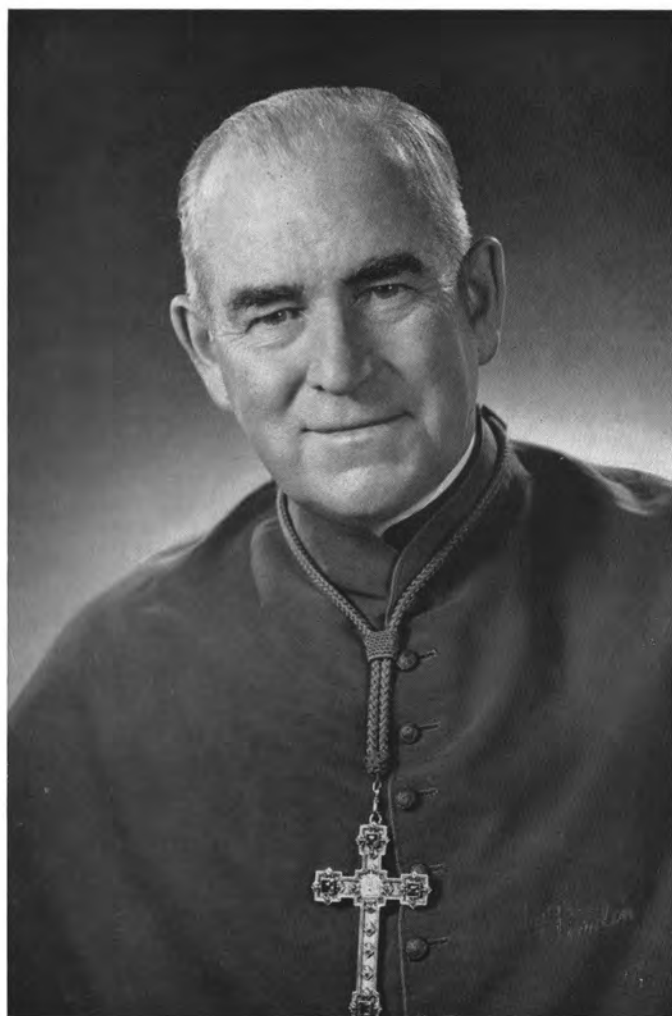

St. Andrews parish plant and its good people give ample evidence of Monsignor Eckl's priestly goodness and unstinting devotion to God and Church. His extensive charity to those in need and to the missions is known only to God and himself.

The tribute of a general parish communion on the Golden Jubilee Sunday and the continued prayerful good wishes will evidence the gratitude and loyalty of his parishioners.

The Committee

The next day again John stood, and two of his disciples. And beholding Jesus walking, he saith: Behold the Lamb of God.

And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

And Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two who had heard of John, and followed him.

He findeth first his brother Simon, and saith to him: We have found the Messias, which is, being interpreted, the Christ,

And he brought him to Jesus.

John 1, 35-37; 40-42

The Story of Fifty Years

Fifty years! Fifty golden years! Memories of hard work, pronounced loyalty, complete cooperation, tremendous effort. Memories of more than a generation of men, women and children — people of God — striving nobly to carry on the work of the Church according to the will of Jesus Christ. The memories make up part of the history of St. Andrew's Parish in the northeast section of Rochester. Its beautiful church, rectory, school and convent are located on Portland Avenue between Durnan Street and Barberry Terrace.

We can always appreciate the present state of things the better when we contrast them with the past. Not so many years ago Portland Avenue, the busy thoroughfare of today, was but a dirt road, having the distinction, however, of being the only road over which ran the famous "dummy cars" operating between Sea Breeze and the city line; while they who remember 75 years back, recall how this same road had been a log road — being covered with log planks over which the Irondequoit farmer brought his produce to the city of Rochester. At the present corner of Portland and Clifford stood a toll-gate house conducted by Charles Stehle.

There was then considerable woodland and forest, and the houses were but few in number. Opposite the present church grounds, between Oneida and Grafton Streets, were dense woods, leading back to a log house on Grafton Street, the home of George Smith, Sr., original settler in that section.

The history of every Catholic Church, in a wide sense, goes back to apostolic times; but in a special way is this true of St. Andrew's because its patron was one of the Twelve.

In the first chapter of St. John's gospel we read of how John the Baptist pointed out our Lord to Andrew the Apostle. He, in turn, brought his brother Peter to the Master saying, "We have found the Messias."

For the past fifty years, we may say that the Apostle Andrew through the church dedicated to him, has been bringing people to our Lord — teaching them the truths of Christ and making available to them the sacraments of Christ.

On the occasion of this Parish's Golden Anniversary, priests, religious and people look to their Apostolic Patron for his continued guidance and intercession.

FIRST DECADE

A NEW PARISH

In 1913 an urgent need was felt for a place of worship and for a school in which to educate the children in that rapidly growing section of the city now occupied by St. Andrew's Parish. Accordingly, it was suggested that a suitable building be secured where Mass could be celebrated for a time. Frank X. Foery, Frank Leckinger, Emil Thoman, Anthony Limpert and Stephen Zeitvogel who were foremost in their desire to have Mass, and subsequently a church in that locality, applied to Father Staub, the pastor of Holy Redeemer Church, "The Mother Church", to aid them in having Mass celebrated in some suitable edifice.

But Father Staub, recognizing the possibilities and needs of the future, urged the acquiring of some suitable site for a future parish.

After a careful examination of various sites, it was finally decided to purchase the Kleehammer property, fronting on Portland Avenue, extending back between Durnan Street and Barberry Terrace and comprising better than two acres. The original cost of the property was $15,000.00.

YEAR OF FOUNDATION

With the sanction of the Most Rev. Bishop Thomas F. Hickey, the land was acquired. A meeting was held in the fall of 1913 at Concordia Hall of Holy Redeemer Church to organize a new Parish. Rev. Joseph A. Miller, pastor of Holy Trinity Church, Webster and former assistant of Holy Redeemer

Church, was chosen for this important work.

Father Miller soon set to work to take up a census in this new field. He was assisted by Francis Lane, a seminarian, who in 1920 became the first priest ordained from St. Andrew's parish. (Monsignor Francis Lane later became nationally renowned in his work as chaplain at the Elmira reformatory.) The census revealed about 200 families, mostly young German and a few Irish, employed at Bausch & Lomb Co. and Wollensak Optical Co. With this group Father Miller organized a new parish. He incorporated it under the name of St. Andrew's Roman Catholic Church of Rochester, New York.

The first parish building was a two story structure — a combination church, school and hall — built at a cost of $55,000.00. The church was on the first floor, the school of six rooms on the second floor and a hall in the basement. It was made of tapestry brick and contained fire-proof stairways. The architect was James Pigot of Newark, New Jersey and it was built by Gosline and Swan, local contractors. The cornerstone was laid on June 28, 1914 under the direction of Father Miller.

NAME — ST. ANDREW

At a social gathering of the Reverend Joseph A. Miller and Mr. Andrew Wollensak and others, it was proposed to Mr. Wollensak that the new church be named after his patron saint provided he would make a substantial donation. He immediately agreed and offered a donation of a thousand dollars. The gift was accepted and the name Andrew agreed on. Mr. Wollensak, head and founder of the famous Wollensak Optical Company, was thus chosen to lend his name also to the new church; and, regarding this as a signal honor, he offered, likewise to donate the beautiful marble statue of St. Andrew, which adorns the front of the building.

SOCIAL EVENTS

Now that the parish was organized, keen interest was aroused for the financing of the work. Bowling contests, card parties, house pedroes, etc. were held in rapid succession, each bringing in good returns. Messrs. Frank X. Foery, Frank Leckinger, Anthony and Joseph Limpert and Albert Krum, under the name of the "Oneida Social Club" arranged a "Prize Bowling Contest," which took place February 17, 1914 netting ninety-five dollars. This was the very first venture to raise funds for the benefit of the new St. Andrew's Church.

FIRST LAWN FESTIVAL

The first big "Lawn Fete" was planned to be held on the eves of July 22 to 28, in the parish building, which was not yet complete. The net proceeds amounted to $565. Among the visitors at the "Lawn Fete" was a young priest, pastor at the time of St. John's Church, Greece, New York, who had the pleasure of donating a doll to one of the booths; this priest, little dreaming of the future, was shortly to become the first resident pastor of the new parish.

FATHER ECKL APPOINTED PASTOR

Owing to the ill health of Father Miller, who had practically completed the work of construction and who had passed through the difficult formative period of the parish, the completion of the work was intrusted to Father Eckl, of Greece, who was officially appointed by the Bishop as pastor of the new parish on All Souls' Day, November 2, 1914. Immediately, Father Eckl set to work to bring the structure to completion as quickly as possible, for the people were now becoming more anxious to have Mass celebrated in the new church. He rented and moved into a house at 964 Portland Avenue, on the feast of St. Andrew, November 30, 1914. This served as a rectory for only two years. In 1916 the present rectory was built and served for 41 years — till 1957 when a substantial addition doubling the size, was made under the direction of Monsignor Eckl.

Kleehammer Homestead To Give Way to Church of New St. Andrew's Roman Catholic Parish

Taken from Rochester Herald 1914

For seventy years the Kleehammer homestead has stood at what is now known as Portland Avenue and Barber Street. Born in an era of American rural architecture when stability was the first requirement, it has withstood the test of time well, and today is as habitable in many respects as the more pretentious suburban dwellings that have gone up around it. But its career is soon to come to an end. It is to be razed when the weather grows warmer to make way for the church of the new St. Andrew's Roman Catholic parish that was recently formed from a part of Holy Redeemer Church parish.

The modest little structure was built by Sigmund Kleehammer, a German immigrant, who came here in the early part of the last century, when crossing the ocean was a rather hazardous and uncomfortable trip, and settling in Western New York State a real test for the man unacquainted with the speech and the ways of the country. But Sigmund Kleehammer, sturdy and industrious, found work among the farmers of the village of Irondequoit, saved his money and in time was able to lay the foundation of an American home.

Stood Alone for Years

The district for years and years was thinly populated farm territory and the house stood out alone, a Beacon light on the road. Part of the town was taken over by the city of Rochester and still for years it was without neighbors, until within the last few years the trolley lines and the expansion of the city spurred real estate men to develop the tract and mark out sites for suburban dwellings. Frame houses and a few corner blocks of stone then began going up all around, and with the coming of new people to the section came the need of a church.

The central location of the Kleehammer home and its situation on a corner lot of ample size for a church plant appealed to Bishop Thomas F. Hickey and he persuaded the present owner, Benjamin Kleehammer, Sigmund's son, to sell the property and let the old landmark go down in history.

CHURCH DEDICATED SUNDAY

Dec. 13, 1914

Consequently, on Sunday, December 13, 1914, the church was blessed and dedicated at 10:30 by Bishop Hickey, and the first Mass celebrated.

BLESSING OF THE BELL

In the afternoon of that same day the new bell was blessed by the Bishop, and was to serve, henceforth, to call the living to worship, and to mourn the dead. The bell was the gift of Rev. Fathers Hargather and Regenbogen. The people at once manifested their interest and delight in having a church close at hand; and proved generous in equipping the church with altars and stations, statues and vestments, all of which were donated and the names of the donors were inscribed on the Memorial Tablet that was placed in the vestibule.

THE FAIR

The next undertaking of importance was the big fair held in the parish hall in January, 1915, netting $4,013. Large crowds attended and great enthusiasm was shown by the workers of the various committees. A notable feature of the fair, which netted $1100 was the Ford runabout, donated by Father Eckl, who had driven the "much coveted flivver" through the country roads of Greece, his former parish, and thence down the flight of stairs into the basement and up on the stage, where it became the center of attraction.

THE FIRST MISSION

The first mission held in the parish was a one week's mission given by Rev. Vigilius Krull, opening on the first Sunday of Lent, February 21, 1915. The excellent spirit and the seeds of genuine fervor were implanted in the hearts of the people through the preaching of this zealous Missionary. Many converts began to come into the church, being a new field and the harvest of souls was plentiful. At the first confirmation, held in June 1916, 46 boys and 47 girls were confirmed; there were also 17 men and 11 women confirmed, nearly all of whom were newly converted to the Faith.

CHURCH CHOIR

There were several young men and young ladies gifted with voices, who were anxious to prepare to sing the first Mass on opening Sunday. The original choir comprised 15 voices, all local talent, under the direction of Mrs. Schu-hart, with Miss Julia Foery serving for several years as the first organist of the parish.

ST. ANDREW'S SCHOOL

The school was organized in September, 1915, with the Sisters of Mercy in charge and Sr. M. Borgia as principal, assisted by Sr. M. Bernadette, Sr. M. Charles, Sr. M. Josephine and Sr. M. Magdalen. The first enrollment showed an attendance of 205 pupils; which number rapidly increased through the zealous labor of the devoted nuns, till it had grown in 1962 to a total of over 900, and ranks as one of the largest schools of the diocese.

CHURCH SOCIETIES

During the mission in 1915, the Holy Name Society, the Rosary Society, the Young Ladies' Sodality were organized and have proved a great boon for the parish. The Holy Name Society was organized with Mr. Henry Schlueter as its first President and began to rank as one of the very active and progressive Holy Name societies of the city.

THE RECTORY

In October of the same year, the new Rectory, which was begun in April, was completed, at a cost of less than $10,000. This was the second unit of the church buildings and was a very attractive addition, being a beautiful colonial home, designed by Mr. Frank Frey, architect. At the end of the 1916-17 school year, registration of the school had reached 335.

THE GREAT WORLD WAR

During the fall and winter of 1917, many packages were prepared and sent to the boys from St. Andrew's, nearly one hundred of whom had entered their country's service, and in February, 1918, the Holy Name Society presented to the parish, a Service Flag, to indicate to the world at large that the boys of St. Andrew's were loyal to God and country. On Decoration Day, the Holy Name Society, under the direction of Father Florack, caused a flag pole to be erected in front of the church grounds and an impressive flag raising service was held. The church was built on the eve of the Great World War, which broke out in August, 1914. Notwithstanding this great handicap, the people rallied to the support of church and school and by their generous and continuous contributions, spurred on by the slogan, "When everyone gives a little, it counts", they were able to pay off the entire initial indebtedness, nearly $90,000 in ten years.

FIRST ORDINATION

On May 30, 1920, occurred an outstanding event in the history of St. Andrew's parish, when the Rev. Francis Lane the first boy of the parish to be ordained to the priesthood, celebrated his first Solemn High Mass.

1917-1924

During the years 1917-1925, St. Andrew's "Dixie Minstrels", sponsored by the Holy Name Society, gave annual performances. "The Boy Minstrels", first appearing in March, 1919, were also outstanding as highly-trained boy soprano voices. Their singing indirectly brought about the coming to Rochester in March, 1921, of Father Finn and his famous Paulist Boy Choir; which notable event was sponsored by St. Andrew's parish. August 1919, brought Rev. John B. Crowley to St. Andrew's to make his home here, while administering to the parish of the Annunciation on Norton Street, and having charge of Catholic Charities of the city. In April, 1920 was founded St. George's Benevolent Society; this sick and death benefit society was founded by, and named after, Monsignor Eckl. It is still a flourishing beneficial society and has become an active men's social organization as well. In August 1920, the house, at 42 Oneida Street, was purchased and converted into a suitable convent for the sisters. On July 3, 1921, the Rev. William Cannan was appointed as assistant pastor; in the following year, he entered the Jesuit order, to the regret of the people of St. Andrew's. In September, 1921, the school registration showed a total of 510 pupils.

ANNUAL LAWN FESTIVALS

The annual series of Lawn Festivals, began in the year 1915. In 1923, the net profit was $6,315; in 1929, it rose to $15,164.

SECOND DECADE

In 1924, on January 28, Father Florack, who had toiled most generously for over five years in the parish, was appointed assistant at SS. Peter and Paul's Church, Rochester, and on July 5, of that year was succeeded by Rev. George Kalb.

TENTH ANNIVERSARY

On December 13, 1924, St. Andrew's celebrated its tenth anniversary as a parish with an eloquent sermon on the occasion by the Rev. William Stauder, pastor of the neighboring parish of Holy Redeemer, "the Mother Church," who felicitated the "daughter" church on the accomplishments of ten years.

NEW CHURCH

In the course of these ten years, the parish had paid off its debt, and with this burden removed, the desire of a new church edifice became more pronounced. As the one floor school was becoming inadequate, the need of a separate church and school building became more evident. Accordingly, plans for a new church were drawn by Frank Frey, the architect, in 1925, and on April 13, 1926, ground was broken for the new structure. The ceremony was made most impressive, especially for the children, parishioners of the future, who engaged in brief exercises in saluting the flag and in prayers and hymns. The first spadeful of earth was turned over by the pastor Father Eckl, who in the presence of trustees, architect, building committee, parishioners, with the teachers and children, addressed the gathering as follows,

"There are certain days", he said, "that stand out in the lives of people of a parish as in the history of a country. Today marks the first step in the building program of a new church. It is fitting that we gather here to show our allegiance to the flag of our country, which protects our religious institutions.

BREAKING OF GROUND FOR THE NEW ST. ANDREW'S CHURCH

April 13, 1926

HORSEPOWER

MANPOWER

It is fitting that we should ask God's blessing on the work of building a home of worship to Him, which will protect our children against the dangers of the world."

"It is, therefore, fitting that young and old should gather on this occasion to witness the breaking of ground on which shall rest for years, and perhaps for centuries, a church building wherein God shall be honored and worshipped. This day, April 13, will go down in history in the annals of Catholic Rochester. When you, boys and girls, have grown up, you will recall with no difficulty, the eventful day on which you witnessed the beginning of the erection of a building which it is a great privilege to erect and which will remain as a lasting memorial of the efforts of the people of St. Andrew's parish."

The building was to be of Romanesque design, 162 feet in length 99 feet wide, with a tower 111 feet high. The tower was to serve as a belfry in which, when complete, three beautiful Meneely bells were enclosed. These bells weighing two and one half tons were donated by Frank P. Spiegel, Thomas McGarraghy and John P. From and were consecrated on Sunday June 12.

CORNERSTONE LAYING

The cornerstone of the new church was laid on Sunday, June 6, 1926; this day also marking the twenty-fifth anniversary of priesthood of the pastor, Father Eckl. On Sunday, June 12, 1927, the church building was completed and solemnly dedicated by the Most Rev. Bishop Thomas F. Hickey. On July 1, 1927, Rev. Herbert L. Sturmer was appointed Assistant Pastor.

November, of the same year, saw organization of the St. Andrew's Boys' Band. On November 20, 1927, the newly completed rooms in the school were opened for inspection.

THE "PARISH VISITOR"

The "Parish Visitor" appeared in March, 1928, bringing a monthly message to the parishioners; it continued to appear regularly as a publication for a period of ten years. For two years more it continued as a quarterly.

Those who are fortunate enough to have preserved some, or all the numbers of the "Parish Visitor" of those early days—will enjoy, in no small degree, perusing its pages, at this time, refreshing the memory with the names of the parishioners, many of whom have passed on, reading the articles—contributed in many cases by the children of the school, now grown to manhood and womanhood—viewing the drawings, photos, and illustrations, that made each issue interesting and outstanding; the "Parish Visitor", today, serves as a valuable historical record of the Parish—its activities its financial interests—its school work, its societies, etc.

THE 1929 LAWN FESTIVAL

In 1929, a mammoth Lawn Festival was held. It was conducted for six nights, and six cars were given away. The total resulting from this "fete" was $15,164. The genial visitor, Dr. Breen, regaled the children, on Children's Day of the Festival, with games, races, etc. In the fall of 1929 began the Great Depression; it continued well into the thirties and brought, unemployment, poverty and much suffering.

1930

On January 28, a play "The Square Crooks", was presented by the St. Andrew's Players and on April 28, 29, 30 and May 1, they presented another play entitled, "Seven Keys to Baldpate". School Field Day fell on June 3 and was held at Genesee Valley Park. August 1, Rev. George Kalb was appointed pastor at "King Ferry". August 27, St. Andrew's Boys' Band gave a concert in Carter St. Park. September 15, saw the return of Father Florack as assistant pastor once more.

1931

A new assistant priest was introduced on January 4, 1931; the Rev. Timothy J. McGrath, who was from the Charlestown, S. C. diocese. On the nights of March 15-17, the Juvenile Irish Minstrels were presented by the children under the direction of the Sisters and William Barry and on April 12, 13 and 14, a comedy, "The Family Upstairs" was presented by the St. Andrew's Players. This year School Field Day again was held at Genesee Valley Park, June 2nd. The formal opening of the new baseball field on Carter St., donated by Mr.

Stephen Zielinski, took place June 5th. Another new assistant priest, the Rev. Joseph Maloney, was appointed June 21st. A Mission for Italian parishioners was given by Father Pece on November 1st.

In 1932, under the direction of Mr. William Barry the International Minstrels was presented on the nights of March 13, 14 and 15. May 24, St. Andrew's School planted a tree in honor of George Washington, thereby getting the name of the school on the National Honor Roll of the American Tree Association of Washington, D. C. On June 12th of this same year, a Holy Name Rally was held at Red Wing Stadium, St. Andrew's had 1,000 men present. They paraded to the stadium, led by the St. Andrew's Boys' Band.

1933

In 1933, on February 19th, a Communion Breakfast of the Sodality was held. Speaker was the Rev. Walter A. Foery, who later, in 1937 became Bishop of Syracuse. The Juvenile Irish Minstrels, under the direction of Bill Barry were presented March 19th, 20th and 21st. Dedication of the new organ by Professor Philip Kreckel took place April 16. The organ was blessed by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. William Hart, V. G. and the sermon was given by the Rev. George V. Predmore of Spencerport. On May 22, the Most Rev. John Francis O'Hern, third Bishop of Rochester, died from a heart attack; his untimely death brought heartfelt sorrow to his faithful. Rev. John Maloney, assistant Pastor, was transferred to St. John the Evangelist Church, June 24, and Rev. Frank Kleehammer was appointed to take his place. October 3rd, a community street dance was held on Barberry Terrace. It was sponsored by Father Florack, assisted by the men of the parish. Most Rev. Edward Mooney was installed as the new Archbishop—Bishop of Rochester at St. Patrick's Cathedral. After he was transferred to the See of Detroit, he was made a Cardinal by Pope Pius XII.

THIRD DECADE

The 20th Anniversary of St. Andrew's Church was celebrated on December 16, 1934. Impressive services in the evening, were held in the Church, with a sermon by the Rev. Walter A. Foery, pastor of Holy Rosary Church.

1935-1939

On January 23, 1935, Rev. Arthur Florack, Assistant Pastor of St. Andrew's since 1930, was appointed Pastor of St. Michael's Church. The Rev. William Lammers, assistant at St. John's Church in Greece, was appointed in his place. A Minstrel Show was presented by the Young people of the Parish, under the direction of Mrs. Alma Predmore, assisted by Charles Lovelius, January 31, February 1st and 2nd. The proceeds, $225, were sent to the Red Cross for the Ohio and Mississippi Valley Flood Sufferers. June 13th, 1937 a Parish Picnic was held at Ellison Park. The picnic proved very successful. That same day, a Sunday, St. Andrew's Grammar School Ball Team won the Championship of the Catholic Parochial League. The prize was a week's vacation at Camp Stella Maris at Conesus Lake. On June 25th, the Rev. Frank A. Kleehammer, assistant pastor, was appointed assistant at SS. Peter and Paul's Church. The Rev. Raymond Wuest, newly ordained, was appointed to take his place. Archbishop Mooney left for Detroit on August 2nd to be installed as the First Archbishop there. The next day, August 3rd, the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, Bishop of Salt Lake City, was named the fifth Bishop of Rochester. In 1937, St. Patrick's Cathedral and surrounding buildings and grounds were sold to the Eastman Kodak Company and on September 13, its doors were closed forever. A Perpetual Novena to Our Lady of Perpetual Help and Queen of the Most Holy Rosary was instituted on Tuesday evening, September 28. October 21, saw the beginning of the Bingo Parties under the direction of Father Wuest. The Most Rev. James E. Kearney was installed as fifth Bishop of Rochester at Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral, November

11th. December 25, the new shrine of Our Lady of Perpetual Help and Queen of the Rosary was blessed. The Rev. Robert L. Kress of Willite Drive, celebrated his first Solemn High Mass June 12, 1938 at 9:30. The sermon on the occasion was preached by the Rev. Frank Kleehammer. At 11:00 o'clock, the Rev. Leslie G. Whalen celebrated his first Solemn High Mass. The sermon was given by the Rev. Arthur Florack, pastor of St. Michael's Church. That same afternoon, the Most Rev. James E. Kearney, Bishop of Rochester, administered the Sacrament of Confirmation to a class of 175 children. It was the Bishop's first visit to St. Andrew's since his installation as Bishop of Rochester the previous November. On June 19th, the Rev. William Merchant celebrated his first Solemn Mass at 11 o'clock. The sermon on the occasion was preached by the Rev. Daniel O'Rourke, pastor of Mother of Sorrows Church, Greece. Sunday June 26, the first appeal for Old Gold to be used in the making of the Silver Jubilee Chalice was made. The Ladies of the Altar Society sponsored the project. So readily and generously did the people respond that old gold in every form began to pour in; rings, spectacles, teeth, watches, etc. and even precious stones and cash were donated so that by Easter 1939, enough was collected for both a chalice and a ciborium.

The Chalice was used for the first time by the Most Rev. Bishop Kearney, who celebrated the Pontifical Mass. He specially remembered in the Mass, all the donors who contributed in any form toward the Silver Jubilee Chalice. The Chalice, a beautiful creation, has an inscription around the base in memory of the occasion. Some twenty rubies with a precious diamond (the gift of a former parishioner) in the center, are arranged in the form of a cross at the foot of the Chalice. The general finish is of hammered gold, modern in design.

The Jubilee Sermon was preached by the Most Rev. Archbishop Thomas Hickey, D.D., who officiated at the dedication of the first Church in 1914.

Preceding the Mass, Bishop Kearney was met by an escort of the Kolping Society Band, Knights of St. John Commandery 272, of St. Francis Xavier Parish—two drill companies of the Ladies' Auxiliaries of the Knights of St. John, groups of Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts, and members of the Holy Name Society, who conducted the Bishop to the church premises. The formal procession, headed by the band, wended its way from the school to the Church; the altar boys and numerous Clergy followed in the procession, at the end of which was the Most Rev. Bishop and the officers of the Mass.

The Jubilee celebration continued with a banquet and entertainment on Monday night. Among the guests of the evening were the Rt. Rev. William Hart, V.G. and the Rev. Frank Kleehammer. A Solemn Mass of Requiem was offered on Tuesday morning for all deceased parishioners of the past 25 years and a Solemn Mass of Thanksgiving on Wednesday morning for all the blessings of the past 25 years.

The Jubilee Celebration came to a brilliant close on Wednesday night, December 13th (the exact day 25 years after the dedication of the first church) with a banquet and entertainment for the men. Among the guests who honored the occasion were several of the former assistants and neighboring Priests.

Archbishop Hickey, Rochester's second Bishop, died on December 10, 1940 and was buried from Sacred Heart Pro-Cathedral. The final Mass was celebrated by Bishop Kearney; Bishop Foery of Syracuse preached the eulogy and Archbishop Spellman gave final absolution.

By 1940 the Great Depression was indeed a matter of unpleasant history. The early 1940's brought new griefs and trials, most tragic of which was World War II. Europe had been moving slowly but inevitably towards war. On September 1, 1939 Adolf Hitler, the German Chancellor began the Nazi invasion of Poland. England, France, allies of Poland, then declared war on Germany. On June 10, 1940 Benito Mussolini's Italy entered the war on Germany's side. Within months the war spread through Europe and into Africa and Asia. The United States was able to remain out of the war for the time—but took measures of preparedness. Selective Service Registration started on October 16, 1940 — the young men of Saint Andrew's began marching to camp. On Sunday, December 7, 1941 Japan launched a surprise attack on the United States base at Pearl Harbor in Hawaii. President Roosevelt declared war upon Japan the following day; upon Japan's allies, Germany and Italy, on December 11th. January 1, 1942 was set aside by President Roosevelt as a national day of prayer. Saint Andrew's parishioners responded prayerfully and were set to face the responsibilities of America's greatest war.

In June 1942 Father Terence Cauley, O.F.M., Father C. Eldridge Bauer, and Father Jerome Lane, SS.CC. offered their first solemn high masses in the presences of their family and friends at Saint Andrew's.

January 11, 1943 Father John Widman ordained six months ahead of the ordinary time because of the accelerated schedule in Saint Bernard's Seminary due to the war, arrived as assistant at Saint Andrew's.

During the war years, people of Saint Andrew's did their share in national defense by taking part in scrap metal drive (March 1942), rubber drive (June 1942), Red Cross sewing courses and nursing classes. The parish gave Father John Kleintjes to Navy service in June of 1943.

A new and up-to-date Kindergarten was installed in Saint Andrew's School in the summer of 1943 — ready for the little tots who arrived in September.

To invoke Our Blessed Lady's protection on parish and community, an impressive wayside Shrine was erected on the corner of Durnan Street and Portland Avenue. It was blessed and dedicated by Bishop Kearney on November 1, 1943. It still stands to remind all who pass by on busy Portland Avenue of Mary's protection and her powerful intercession before the Throne of God.

FOURTH DECADE

After six and a half years of service, Father Wuest was transferred to Saint Salome's Parish in January of 1944. His work was especially effective with the men through the Holy Name Society and with sick; he was very successful in directing the bingo games, a source of needed income.

The observance of the Centennial of the Sisters of Mercy in New York State was held on April 23, 1944. These noble Sisters were always most zealous in the care of the sick, poor and ignorant. They and their generous help have been a wonderful boon to the progress of the parish.

On July 16, 1944 special honor was given to one of these Sisters on the occasion of her fiftieth anniversary—lovable Sister Barbara. Twenty eight of her fifty years in religion were spent in service to God through St. Andrew's School. A solemn High Mass was offered on that occasion, at which Father Robert L. Kress preached the sermon.

Eventually, World War II came to an end; but victory came piecemeal. Although much of Europe had been reconquered by the Fall of 1944, its inhabitants were found to be in desperately poor straits. The first of what came to be an annual used clothing collection, was held in September and October of 1944. The parishioners brought used clothing items in large numbers to the hall where it was sorted and packed for overseas shipment.

The thirtieth anniversary of the parish was happily marked by a beautiful procession and pageant on December 10, 1944. Father Florack preached on the occasion.

Allied triumph in Europe came on May 8, known as V-E Day. The United Nations Organization was being formed in San Francisco when victory (V-J) Day came in the Pacific, August 14, 1945. President Truman made the long-hoped for announcement about 7:00 P.M. Spontaneously many people came to church to offer thanks to God. On the Holyday of Mary's Assumption, our people joyously assisted at the Holyday Masses.

March 18, 1945 Father Jerome Schifferli celebrated his first Solemn High Mass in his home parish.

Father John Widman was transferred to Saint Alphonsus Church, Auburn on April 8, 1945 and was succeeded by Rev. John LeVeque.

April 5, 1945 St. George's Benevolent Society celebrated its 25th anniversary marking the occasion with corporate Mass, Communion and Breakfast.

A memorial service on May 27, 1945, was held at the Honor Roll Plaque on the church property, corner of Durnan Street and Portland Avenue, for the young men of the community who sacrificed their lives in World War II.

The convent on Oneida Street had some time ago become inadequate for the Sisters who staffed the school. In November 1945 a campaign, which netted $35,336.00 was conducted; but it was not until April 5, 1948 that ground was broken for the colonial, red brick convent on Barberry Terrace.

1946-1950

In January 1946 the people of Saint Andrew's faced with a quota of $8,000.00 for the new building of the Minor Seminary of Saint Andrew, subscribed $8,940.00.

Father Bernard Kuchmann was assistant from April 21, 1946 to November 10th of that year. He succeeded Father Schnacky and was followed by Father Heisel.

A signal honor came to Saint Andrew's and its pastor November 11, 1947, when Msgr. Eckl was invested as a Domestic Prelate with the title Rt. Rev. Monsignor. He was greeted by his good parishioners at a reception in the hall November 16th.

The post war years with its large increase in population brought the need of many new Catholic institutions and with them, the inevitable financial campaign. In February, 1948, in a campaign for Saint John Fisher College, pledges of $16,200.00 were realized. This was 150% of quota.

The first Solemn High Mass of another parishioner was offered on November 9, 1948 at 11:00 o'clock by Rev. William DuBois.

Bishop Kearney blessed the new convent, offered the first Mass in its chapel April 19, 1949. The people of the parish were invited to an open house for its inspection Sundays May 15 and May 22nd.

A bronze plaque bearing the names of the war dead of the parish was erected in the vestibule. Its dedication took place May 22, 1949.

The year of 1950 had been declared a Jubilee Year by Pope Pius XII. During it on All Saint's Day, he defined the dogma of Our Lady's Assumption as a doctrine of faith. St. Andrew's observed the event with a triduum in honor of Mary. The Pope granted a Jubilee Indulgence to all who made a pilgrimage to the four great Roman Basilicas. Those who were unable to do so were granted the same Indulgence in 1951 by making a pilgrimage to four churches in the city designated by the Bishop. Saint Andrew's engaged buses to assist its people to make a group pilgrimage in May.

The honor of serving as one of the Diocesan Consultants to Bishop Kearney came to Monsignor Eckl in 1951. March 8, 1951 Brother Ralph J. Carpenter M.S.C. made final profession of vows in Geneva, Illinois, which ceremony Monsignor Eckl attended. The happy event of the Monsignor's Golden Jubilee of ordination was celebrated on June 10, 1951. He celebrated the 11:00 o'clock Mass with Bishop Kearney preaching on the throne. He also preached the Jubilee sermon. The adult and boys' choir were under the direction of Raymond J. Hasenauer with Francis J. Pilecki at the organ. Rev. John Muckle and Rev. Arthur Florack assisted the Bishop at the Throne. The deacon was Rev. Robert Fox and the subdeacon, Very Rev. Msgr. William Merchant, both former parishioners. The Masters of Ceremonies were Rev. John Maney and Rev. Raymond Heisel.

With the increase in children of school age, St. Andrew's school became inadequate. Therefore, to take care of current needs and with an eye to the future, Monsignor Eckl planned for an addition to the school. It was to have 10 classrooms, a kitchen and cafeteria to seat approximately 150. Ground was broken for it by Msgr. Eckl on Wednesday, August 13, 1952. The assistants, Father LeVeque and Father LeFrois, were present, as well as Father Albert Schnacky, a former assistant. In September 1953, the new school rooms were first used.

Msgr. Lawrence Casey, pastor of Sacred Heart Cathedral, was named first Auxiliary Bishop of Rochester February 10, 1953. He was consecrated as Bishop of Cea (an ancient but non-functioning diocese in Greece) on May 5, 1953 by Francis Cardinal Spellman.

In June of 1953, a tremendous blessing came to St. Andrew's parish in that it was designated the Church for the Northeast section of the Nocturnal Adoration Society. Ever since then, the last Saturday night of every month has seen groups of men from the northeastern section of Monroe County come together for their hours of adoration from 10:00 P.M. Saturday night until 6:00 A.M. Sunday morning.

The charity of the people was demonstrated in December 1953 when a gift of $500.06 (taken up in a special Sunday collection) was given to Mt. Carmel parish after its school fire.

FIFTH DECADE

In 1954, the 100th anniversary of the dogma of the Immaculate Conception was commemorated by a "Marian Year".

Bishop Kearney convoked the Sixth Diocesan Synod of the Rochester Diocese on April 6, 1954 — the first to be held in Rochester's second Cathedral Church.

During July and August of that year, the first C.Y.O. summer day camp at St. Andrew's was conducted.

St. Thomas More Club, a city-wide young adult club transferred its headquarters from Sacred Heart to St. Andrew's. It was founded in 1946 with Ed Gartland as its first president.

To all active members of the parish in this generation, Mrs. Martha Repsher is a legendary character; she was honored in 1954 by the Catholic laywoman of the year.

1954 was outstanding in the fact that three young parishioners were ordained to the priesthood—Neil Seger for the diocese of St. Augustine and William Geiger for the Redemptorists and Gerard Pilecki for the Basilians. All celebrated their first solemn high masses in our church.

A small shrine of Our Lady of the Playground (of which perhaps few know) stands on the Durnan Street side of the school. It was blessed by Monsignor Eckl on August 15.

The cornerstone of the new Jesuit McQuaid High School—the first institution in the diocese named after one of its bishops — was laid on Sunday, September 19.

On November 28, the Laemlein-Masare Post No. 259 V.F.W. dedicated the permanent memorial to those of the 22nd ward who served their country in war and to those who died for it. This plaque stands on the corner of Portland Avenue and Durnan Street.

Northside Hospital, a division of the Rochester General Hospital, was opened in 1956. Being located within the boundaries of St. Andrew's parish, the emergency spiritual care of its patients came under the responsibility of St. Andrew's. So, for the first time in its history, the parish was assigned a third assistant pastor in the person of Father William Brien. For six years he zealously assumed the care of the sick in the fruitful field of hospital rooms.

In order to provide funds for enlarging and renovating the rectory, which was woefully inadequate for the conduct of parish business, a Financial Needs Campaign was conducted in 1956. It resulted in pledges amounting to $230,000.00. On December 5, the work of enlarging the rectory, began. A new part was added to the rear of the old rectory, almost doubling its size, and the interior of the old part was completely remodeled. During this time, a temporary rectory was established at 714 Portland Avenue. The priests returned to the enlarged rectory during the week of September 22, 1957.

The number of sisters in the convent had grown to twenty. For the efficient operation of the convent a station wagon was purchased and presented to them on December 9, 1956.

The people of St. Andrew's, as well as their fellow Catholics, were saddened and troubled about the news of Bishop Kearney's illness and necessary surgery. On December 11, 1956 he was operated on in St. Mary's Hospital; all were requested to assist at Mass, receive Holy Communion and pray for the Bishop's recovery. Happily, these prayerful requests were favorably answered. After three months of convalescence, the Bishop was again in sound and vigorous health.

Each Christmas since 1956, the front lawn of the church has been the site of an attractive outdoor crib; it was presented to the parish by the Cub Scouts at their Christmas party on December 16.

1957 marked the Centenary Celebration of the Sisters of Mercy.

The neighboring parish to the northeast, the Annunciation, had recently made steady progress and expansion; on March 24, 1957, ground was broken on Norton Street for its parochial school. Previously, its children wishing a Catholic education, had been accommodated in St. Andrew's school.

Father Edward Frank of Pomeroy Street was ordained on May 25, 1957 at the Josephinum Seminary in Worthington, Ohio and offered his first Mass at St. Andrew's church.

During October 1958, after a long and fruitful reign, Pope Pius XII died. He was succeeded by Pope John XXIII. Early in the new reign, changes in the Church's ritual followed—one of which, the dialogue mass was instituted in March 1959.

Members of the Christian Mothers' Club conducted a parish census in April, 1959.

The year 1960 was designated by Bishop Kearney as the Year of The Sacred Heart. At this time permission was granted for an evening Mass on Friday at 5:30. This evening mass has continued weekly ever since, preceded by confessions at five o'clock.

1959 saw Robert Fink ordained for the Basilians.

James Geiger of 100 Sylvester Street, the second of his family to become a Redemptorist, offered his first solemn high mass on Sunday, June 26, 1960.

The Fall of 1960 brought the Catholic High Schools Campaign. St. Andrew's was assigned a quota of $99,000.00. Two co-institutional high schools were built—in Irondequoit, the Bishop Kearney High School and in Greece, the Cardinal Mooney High School.

The November 1960 election made John F. Kennedy, President of the United States—the first Catholic to be elected to the highest office in our country.

On June 4, 1961, the Sixtieth Anniversary of Msgr. Eckl's ordination was observed by a Solemn High Mass of Thanksgiving.

Henry Schlueter a trustee of many years, died in July 1961.

On May 28, 1962 St. Andrew's Christian Mothers' Club was honored by the presence of Father Roll, the National Director of the Confraternity of Christian Mothers. He was the speaker at their annual banquet.

Our Lady of Perpetual Help Novena was instituted in St. Andrew's with a triduum, May 20-22, 1962, preached by Father Rosenkranz C.S.S.R.

$750.00 was given to St. Ambrose parish in July 1962 to help rebuild its school which had been destroyed by fire.

In the early Spring of 1963, an Increased Revenue Campaign was conducted. In the beginning of this campaign the Sunday collection was increased from about $1450.00 to almost $2800.00. At the same time, plans were announced for the renovation of the church for the parish Golden Jubilee in December 1964.

On May 26 a collection was taken for the Vatican Pavilion at the World's Fair to be held in New York during 1964 and 1965. $754.39 was contributed to this collection.

The world was saddened by the death of Pope John XXIII on June 9, 1963. His short reign brought century-breaking changes to the Church and a remarkable influence on our world.

On July 28, 1963 the announcement was made of the leaving of Sister M. Dorothea and Sister M. Louise after many years of service to St. Andrew's school. Sister Dorothea had been principal of the school for forty-two years and Sister Louise had taught and served as Superior of the convent for many years. These beloved nuns who trained so many of our children over the years hold a high place in the affection of all the parishioners and a prominent position in St. Andrew's fifty golden years.

As a remote preparation for the Golden Jubilee, an old gold and silver collection was held in October. As a result, a new ciborium, containing 74 diamonds was given to the church and twelve hundred dollars for the beautifying of the sanctuary.

In the late Spring of '64, work of renovating the church was begun and completed in September of the same year, at a cost of approximately $38,000.00. New lighting fixture and wiring were installed; the walls below the clerestory windows were painted; new furniture was placed in the sanctuary; new carpeting was laid in both the sanctuary and nave; reredos of the side altars was removed; a new main altar covered by a baldachino was erected, as a memorial to the fifty year pastorate of Monsignor George Eckl.

As St. Andrew's approaches its Golden Jubilee the 3rd session of the Second Vatican Council is being held in St. Peters Basilica; its work is not yet completed. It is attempting to teach and interpret to the modern world, more effectively, the doctrines of Christ: Pope Paul VI now gloriously reigning, guides the Church's work as the Vicar of Christ.

Already many changes have taken place in the internal structure of the Church-in its discipline, its ritual, its government — more are to come.

Since Sept. 14, 1964 the sacraments have been administered in the vernacular rather than in Latin. Beginning the first Sunday of Advent, Nov. 29th, parts of the mass are to be recited in the vernacular.

This century has already experienced tremendous changes in civil, social, economic and religious life. With courage and enthusiasm St. Andrew's looks forward to the future, ready to accept the changes of the Space Age, ready to fulfill its destiny to the people of God. Under the patronage of St. Andrew may it continue its apostolic mission of leading men to God as he did centuries ago.

SISTER M. DOROTHEA, R. S. M.

No history of St. Andrew's would be complete without a special reference to Sister Dorothea. Spanning the five decades of its history, her unselfish and skillful service to St. Andrew's has left an indelible mark on its glorious history.

In 1922 Sister Dorothea became principal of St. Andrew's school and remained in that capacity till she retired to the Mercy Motherhouse in 1963; during those 41 years she was also at various times superior of St. Andrew's Convent.

Her devotion to God and her religious community; her love for the parishioners and pupils; her complete cooperation with pastor and priest; her sage counsel to all; her firm but kindly discipline; her pleasant humor — all these have won for her the admiration, respect and love of St. Andrew's.

Sister Dorothea is one too learned and too humble to expect a display of human gratitude. But St. Andrew's is most grateful for her long and loyal service. The Christian living that she taught those who have come under her guidance and influence remain as a living tribute of gratitude from them. Till her Master rewards her as she deserves, St. Andrew's must be content to express its sincere gratitude in this little tribute.

Our most heartfelt congratulations to our beloved pastor

Monsignor George W. Eckl

to all of the priests that served under him and contributed to the growth and development of St. Andrew's Parish during this golden era.

We wish to express our deep gratitude, admiration and affection to our devoted Sisters of Mercy for the dedicated service that they rendered to us and to St. Andrew's Parish during these golden years. Their influence on our lives can never be measured by human values and for this we ask Almighty God for continued blessings on their work, for they are truly, Sisters of Mercy.
